CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

NAME

1.a. The Corporation shall be known as the West Bridgewater Youth Athletic Association, Inc. (WBYAA).

1.b. WBYAA shall be the recognized abbreviation of the organization and may only be used in association with the organization unless the Board of Directors grants specific permission.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

2.a. The Corporation is formed for civic purposes.

2.a.1. Said Corporation is organized exclusively for educational purposes that qualify it as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

2.b. This Corporation is formed for the purpose of providing an opportunity for athletic participation for the youth of the community.

2.c. The objective of the Corporation shall be to instill in the youth of West Bridgewater ideals of honesty, loyalty, confidence, self-respect and good sportsmanship so that they may be physically and morally better prepared to contribute constructively to their community.

2.d. These objectives will be achieved by providing supervised training and participation in competitive sports and games. The Coaches shall bear in mind that the attainment of exceptional athletic skill or the winning of games is secondary to the molding of future citizens, which is the prime objective.

2.e. No profit shall inure any individual member of the Corporation.

2.e.1. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its Members, Officers, Directors or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income tax

West Bridgewater Youth Athletic Association, Inc.
Constitution and Bylaws

under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

2.f. The Corporation, in being a youth-oriented organization, recognizes that adult volunteers are essential to the well being and future of the organization. The Corporation will not condone any acts, manners or other behavior of an inappropriate or sexual nature against any youth participant of the organization. For a period of not less than once every three years, the organization will conduct a review of all individuals within the organization through public agencies to ensure the well being of the participants.

2.g. The President shall work closely with the Commissioners and or Division Coordinators of each sport to ensure that all Coaches and Named Assistant Coaches are CORI approved at a minimum of once every three years, in conformity with state regulations.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

3.a. Any boy or girl meeting the requirements as to age and residence in the Town of West Bridgewater shall be eligible to participate in the WBYYAA when he or she has completed the necessary registration forms and subject to the conditions set forth in such forms.

3.a.1 Age eligible children attending West Bridgewater Schools through the school choice program will be allowed to participate in WBYYAA sports, if requested. Additionally, age eligible siblings of those participating children may also participate regardless of school choice status. Continuation of non-enrolled sibling eligibility beyond participation of enrolled child is given at the discretion of the Board of Directors. All participants must adhere to the same rules and regulations as stated in the Bylaws and must show proof of school choice participation. (i.e. a report card, progress report or some other form of official documentation of participation in our school system).

3.b. Anyone 18 years of age or older who wishes to become a Voting Member of the WBYYAA may do so by participating in maintaining the organization to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors.

3.b.1 For clarity, "satisfaction of the Board of Directors" is achieved by a measurable level of volunteering in support of the WBYYAA mission. For example, current member of Board of Directors, "registered" Coaches and Named Assistant Coaches of team sports during the previous fiscal year (November-October), or noticeable hours (>10) in support of fund raising activities or at the complex (fields, snack shack) beyond those required as the parent of a participant on a team or tournament team. Individuals wishing to vote in the annual election must verify their eligibility under this clause one week prior to the election with the Nomination Committee.

West Bridgewater Youth Athletic Association, Inc.
Constitution and Bylaws

3.c. WBYAA Code of Conduct: It is expected that all Members of the WBYAA exhibit good sportsmanship. The WBYAA has adopted a zero tolerance policy prohibiting the abuse by word or action toward officials or participants by players, coaches or spectators at all games. This policy shall be stringently enforced. Good sportsmanship shall be defined as one who takes; a defeat without complaining, a win without gloating, treats opponents with fairness, courtesy and respect. Any conduct not reflective of this shall be deemed inappropriate conduct. Any and all inappropriate conduct reported to the WBYAA Executive Board shall be investigated. Inappropriate conduct will be penalized from a minimum penalty of a one game suspension up to an expulsion of not more than five years. The person so expelled shall have to reapply to the WBYAA Executive Board for admittance back into the WBYAA. A specific Coaches Code of Conduct has been outlined in the WBYAA House Rules and Regulations.

3.c.1 Any Member not conforming to the WBYAA Code of Conduct outlined above will be called before the Executive Board for a hearing. Any disciplinary review or grievances heard by and/or acted on by the Executive Board must first give all parties the option to present their views. All parties must be notified and be present at the review unless they have declined participation or the Executive Board has determined the issue will best be served by separate reviews.

3.c.2 Members of the Board of Directors, shall upon evidence of misconduct of any boy or girl, notify the Coach of the team or his representative, of which he or she is a member within twenty-four hours of the act. Said Coach shall appear in the capacity of an advisor with the youth and his/her parents before the Executive Board, which shall have full power to suspend or revoke such youth's right to future participation in the league.

3.c.3. No Member of the WBYAA shall be expelled or suspended by vote of less than a majority vote, of the Executive Board.

3.c.4. If a Board Member misses 4 (four) consecutive Board of Directors meetings during the course of the fiscal year (November – October), the Executive Board may hold a vote to expel that member from the Board.

3.c.5. Any Member of the WBYAA who has been reprimanded, suspended or expelled by the Executive Board shall have the right to appeal to the full Board of Directors. The decision to uphold or repeal the ruling of the Executive Board, by majority vote, by the full Board of Directors shall be considered final, and no more reviews will be heard.

3.d. The President shall appoint from the Board of Directors, a Registrar who will keep the records of Member participation and assist the Commissioners of Sports to coordinate sign-ups of players of all sports.

ARTICLE IV

MEETINGS and DISSOLUTION

4.a. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conducted monthly, generally on the 4th Wednesday, for the reading of reports and routine functioning of the Corporation. The regular monthly meeting in October of each year shall be designated as the Annual Election Meeting, and the election of Officers
